

54. Checklist of critical factors for predictable outcomes in esthetic zone

Reshu Madan

SGT University

Surgical placement of dental implants in the anterior zone requires careful treatment planning, particularly in terms of implant selection and positioning. Among the many clinical considerations, soft tissue contours and emergence profile outcomes are critical factors in determining esthetic results. This paper discusses in detail the considerations for predictable treatment outcomes in the anterior esthetic zone.

DOI: 10.4103/0972-4052.246559